No Bylaw of this content in place.	The Director has the authority to end enrollment of a student to Wheatland Charter Academy (WCA) due to excessive tardies (10 in a school year) or excessive absences (10 in a school year). 10.0 Suspension/Expulsion Process, EdCode 47605 (b) (5) (J) The Procedures by which pupils can be suspended or expelled. Section related to attendance: Compulsory attendance laws are followed and apply. Parents will be notified of excessive tardies or absences and School Attendance Review Board (SARB) procedures will be followed.	Student attendance to school is critical to student exposure and engagement with instruction and for staff to assess student learning. When attendance issues are not remedied by support of the student by the school and/or communication with the parent, this will be reasonable action for the school to end enrollment of the student and refer the student to his/her school of residence. This action is to promote a standard of school attendance and participation in program for student learning and engagement to program.
